

Ana Cristina Dahik Loor

Professor at the Social and Political Environment Department

Academic Degrees

- PhD Student in Management, Cass Business School, City University of London.
- Master in Public Administration and Public Policy, Escuela de Gobierno y Transformación Pública, Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey (ITESM) (honors).
- BA in Information and Journalism, Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey (honors).

Other studies:

- International Faculty Program, IESE Business School, Spain.
- USA, Mexico and the world, Summer Program, Georgetown University.
- Cross-sector relationships, Inter-American Development Bank (IADB) and Instituto Interamericano para el Desarrollo Económico y Social.
- Training methodology of community intervention, Outreach International.

Professional Activities

- Member of Ashoka Venture Board.
- Board Member ISTMO.
- Board Member, Colegio El Peñón and Colegio Montefalco.
- Head of Research and Development, Instituto Mexicano de Prevención Integral (IMEPI A.C.).
- Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist, Crime and Violence Prevention Program (CVPP), United States Agency for International Development (USAID).
- Evaluation and Research Analyst, Via Educación A.C.
- Guest professor at Escuela de Gobierno y Transformación Pública, Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey.
- Guest professor, Universidad Autónoma de Nuevo León.
- Consultant for cross-sector social projects, research and evaluation processes and non-profit organizations.

Areas of Interest

- Cross-sector partnerships
- Sustainable Development and Sustainability
- Corporate Social Responsibility
- Non-profit organizations
- Citizen Participation
- Evaluation of Social Projects and Programs